

Scores

Range:
[1, 6]Real:
4.0Predicted:
5.0

Prompt

Write a persuasive essay to a newspaper reflecting your vies on censorship in libraries. Do you believe that certain materials, such as books, music, movies, magazines, etc., should be removed from the shelves if they are found offensive? Support your position with convincing arguments from your own experience, observations, and/or reading.

Essay

' @ CA PS 1 day @ CA PS 4 @ CA PS 3 , my dad was pulled over three times for @ CA PS 2 : @ CA PS 3 @ CA PS 4 @ CA PS 5 . ' @ CA PS 6 is just @ CA PS 1 of several quotes from a book that I am reading that some people could take offense to . The book in general is a rather app eas ing book , it ' s just some things , people might take offense to . That doesn ' t mean the book shouldn ' t belong on shelves . I don ' t think that libraries should be forced to take books off shelves just because they offended someone . That ' s like saying you should shoot everyone who has made an offensive comment to somebody in their life , you would be left with nothing in the end . If someone finds the things that other people have to say , offensive , they generally stop hanging out with that person . Therefore , it would only make sense for someone to stop reading a book if they find it offensive . Some magazines have really offensive things in them , that people in the real world say . It ' s not like your generic non - fiction books that come up with insulting things to say , at a high school level . You don ' t have to sub s ci r b e to that particular magazine , or even pick it up to read . These days , so many things off end so many people , in so many different ways . What might off end @ P ER SO N 1 down the street , @ P ER SO N 2 across town might find funny . You cannot make everyone happy , and if you took books off the s hl ef because someone complained about the offensive things that they read , you would be trying to app ease to everyone s ' wants and needs . I think it would be fair to put a restriction on books , about age limits . Some of the more offensive ones could have the higher age limits . At the junior high I attended , they have books categorized as ' young adult ' books , which means you either have to be in eighth grade or have a note from your guardian saying that it ' s alright for you to read those types of books . It ' d be just like movies ; movies have the ratings so that only certain people can watch them , why can ' t they do the same with books ? I guess what I am trying to say is that it